February, 13th NEW YEAR WELCOME RECEPTION

On February 13th, we celebrated the New Year Welcome Reception at the Residence of the Consul General of Spain in Miami, an event that marked the official start of 2025 and offered a warm welcome to the new member companies that joined the Chamber throughout 2024.

This special gathering not only highlighted the strong ties between Spain and South Florida but also set an inspiring tone for the year ahead, fostering meaningful conversations, new connections, and opportunities for collaboration within our growing network.

February, 14th WOMEN ON - VOCES EMPREENDEDORAS, WITH ONE DILEMA

On February 24th, we held the first edition of WOMEN ON - VOCES EMPREENDEDORAS, hosted at the Mana Tech offices.

The event gave us the opportunity to meet Martina Capel, co-founder of ONE DILEMA, the denim brand that is revolutionizing fashion with its social media strategy and limited-edition business model.

We heard firsthand about her entrepreneurial journey, the challenges she has faced, and the strategies that have allowed her to stand out in the competitive fashion industry.

It was an inspiring evening that encouraged meaningful conversations, valuable connections, and reinforced our commitment to supporting female leadership and innovation.

March, 5th HIT TALKS

Within our Chamber, the Marketing & Sales Committee plays a key role in fostering innovation, knowledge-sharing, and professional growth among our members, and on March 5th we celebrated its first official event, HIT (High Impact Talks), at Miami Dade College.

The afternoon brought together experts and industry professionals for an engaging session filled with insights, discussions, and strategic perspectives on accelerating business growth in the digital era.

Our panelists and moderators offered valuable tools on how AI is transforming marketing and sales, as well as essential strategies for expanding into global markets. We extend our sincere appreciation to Miami Dade College for hosting us and to all participants who contributed to making this kickoff event an inspiring and impactful experience.

April, 2nd COCKTAIL RESIDENCIA CONSULAR, WITH THE MAYOR OF MADRID

On April 2nd, we hosted a special networking cocktail at the Residence of the Consul General of Spain in Miami, bringing together key representatives from the business, institutional, and diplomatic communities.

The reception was held on the occasion of the official visit of the Mayor of Madrid, who traveled to Miami to strengthen the city's international presence, attract investment, and explore opportunities in culture, the arts, and large-scale events. With the support of ABANCA USA as our event sponsor, the evening offered a remarkable setting for meaningful dialogue and connections.

The gathering also coincided with the visit of FECECA — Federación de Cámaras Españolas de Comercio en América, an organization that brings together the Spanish Chambers of Commerce across the American continent to promote collaboration, business development, and shared initiatives.

Their presence added significant institutional value to the reception, reinforcing the commitment to strengthening ties between Madrid, the United States, and the broader Americas region.

April, 4th COCKTAIL NETWORKING WITH FECECA

On April 4th, as part of the FECECA Mid-Year Meeting 2025 program in Miami, we hosted a vibrant Networking Cocktail at Dolores But You Can Call Me Lolita, bringing together the Chamber leaders from across Latin America, the United States, and Canada.

We had the honor of welcoming D. Jaime Lacadena, Consul General of Spain in Miami, who opened the evening with warm remarks. He was followed by our President, Monica Vázquez, and Inmaculada Riera, CEO of Cámara de España, whose messages underscored the importance of unity, cooperation, and continued transatlantic engagement. Additional representatives from FECECA also shared their perspectives, enriching the event with insights from Chambers across the region.

With the generous support of ABANCA USA and COSENTINO as event sponsors, attendees enjoyed an evening filled with meaningful dialogue and Miami's signature atmosphere. The cocktail also offered the opportunity to continue conversations sparked during the training sessions and working meetings, reinforcing FECECA's mission to drive trade, investment, and business growth across the Americas.

VI PADEL TOURNAMENT

On April 12th, we celebrated the VI Spain-US Chamber Padel Tournament at the vibrant Wynwood Padel Club, bringing together our community for a day filled with sport, great energy, and meaningful networking under the Miami sun.

This year's edition was made possible thanks to the support of our Presenting Sponsor, Banco Sabadell, whose commitment continues to elevate one of our most anticipated annual sporting events.

Players enjoyed a fantastic atmosphere, friendly competition, and plenty of memorable moments that captured the spirit of connection within our Chamber community.

We wrapped up the day with a closing celebration, where numerous brands joined our traditional raffle — highlighted by an exciting round-trip flight from Miami to Spain, courtesy of Air Europa, which added even more enthusiasm to an unforgettable tournament.

May, 14th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

On May 14th, we celebrated our Annual General Assembly at the offices of Greenberg Traurig, LLP in Miami.

During the meeting, our Executive Director Juan Carlos Pereira, together with our President Monica Vazquez and treasurer Pablo Coll, presented the 2024 Management Report and financial statements for approval, as well as the strategic roadmap that will guide our initiatives in 2025.

One of the most special moments of the day was our heartfelt farewell tribute to the Consul General of Spain in Miami, Mr. Jaime Lacadena e Higuera, in recognition of his distinguished diplomatic career and the close relationship he has maintained with our institution and the Spanish business community in the United States.

As a token of gratitude and farewell, we presented Mr. Lacadena with an exclusive bottle from the limited 150th Anniversary Edition of Brandy Fundador, a unique piece created to honor a legacy of excellence and tradition that dates back to 1874.

We concluded the evening with a lively cocktail reception generously sponsored by Redondos, providing the perfect setting for our members and guests to exchange ideas, celebrate achievements, and toast to another successful year for the Spain-US Chamber of Commerce.

ZARAGOZA: THE SMART CHOICE FOR INVESTMENT AND LIFE

On May 22nd, we had the honor of welcoming the Mayor of Zaragoza, Ms. Natalia Chueca, and her team to our joint event, "Zaragoza: The Smart Choice for Investment and Life," held at the BIT Center, Miami Dade College, and sponsored by Rodilla US, adding a "sweet" touch to the event experience.

Business leaders and institutional representatives from both sides of the Atlantic came together to discover why Zaragoza is emerging as Europe's new benchmark for technological and sustainable investment—and as a strategic gateway to the continent.

Thanks to its privileged location, commitment to innovation, and outstanding quality of life, Zaragoza stands out as a key city for companies and investors looking to expand into Southern Europe.

The day concluded with a special reception at the residence of the Consul General of Spain in Miami, where Mr. Jaime Lacadena e Higuera graciously hosted us in honor of Mayor Chueca's visit—further strengthening the ties between Zaragoza and Miami.

May, 30th V GOLF TOURNAMENT

On May 30nd, the V Spain-US Chamber Golf Tournament 2025 brought together members, partners, and friends of the Chamber for an outstanding day at Normandy Shores Golf Club.

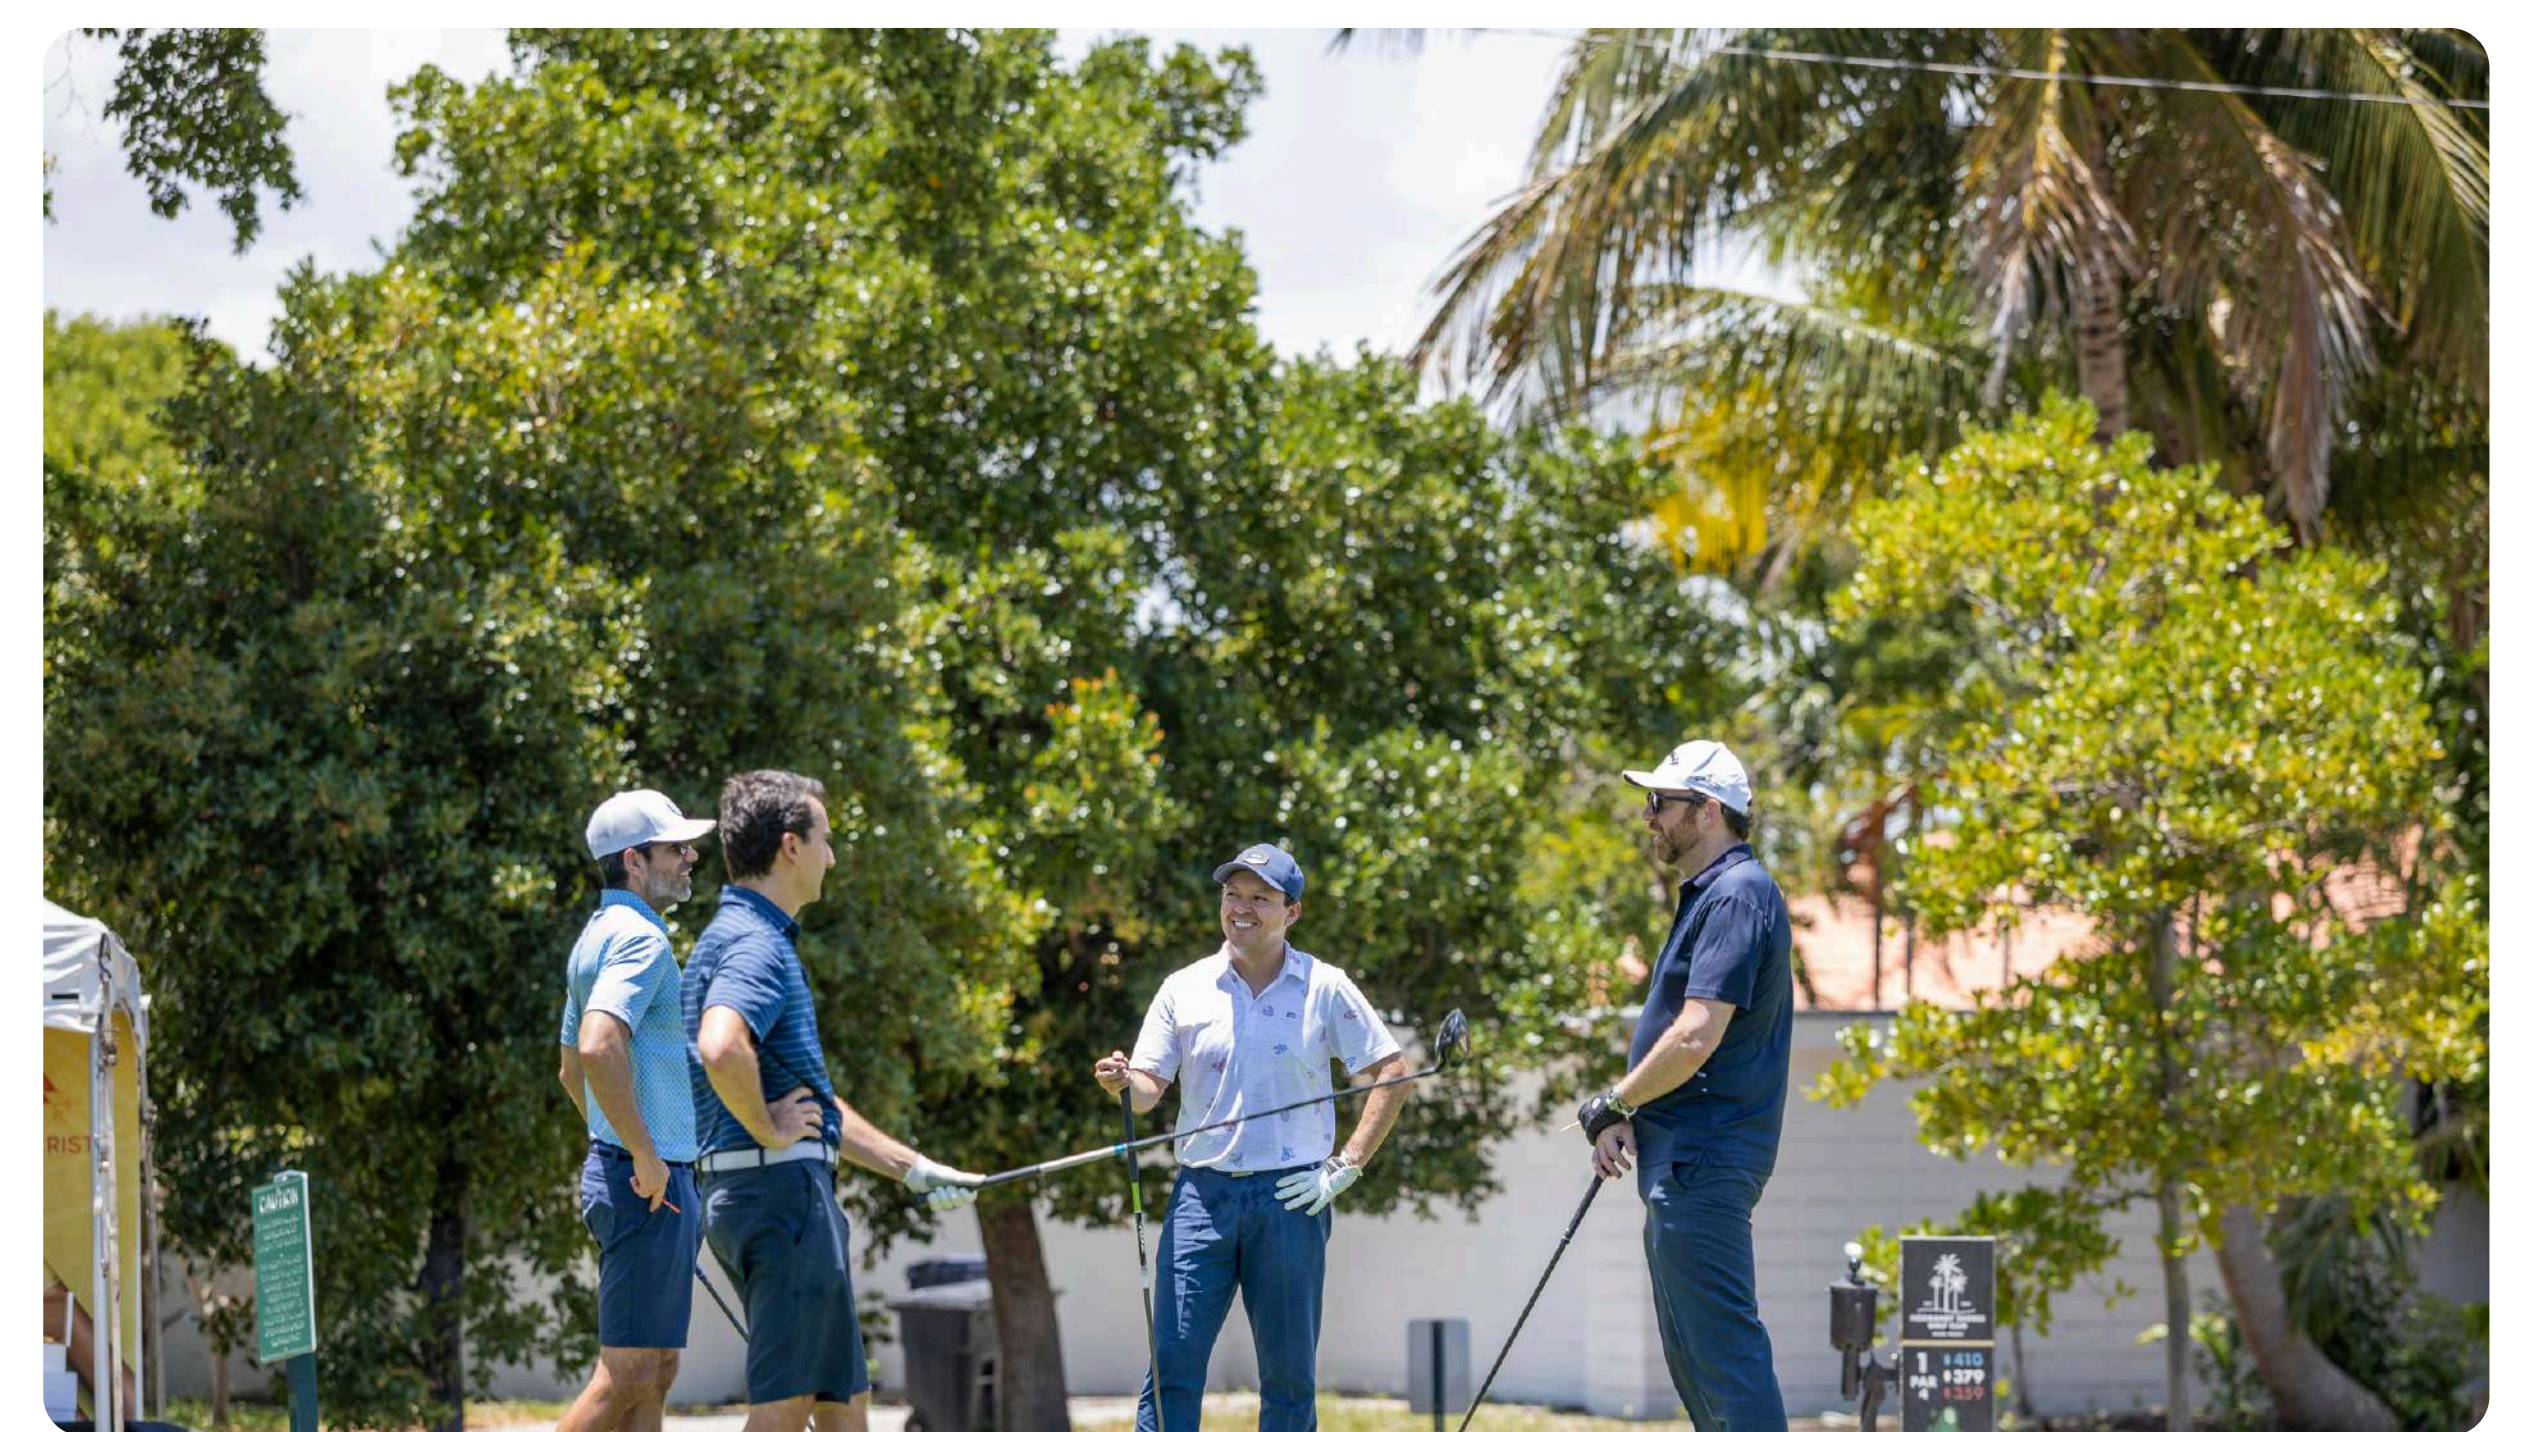

The tournament once again proved to be a flagship networking event, combining sport, business relationships, and community spirit in a relaxed and welcoming setting.

Throughout the day, participants enjoyed a carefully curated experience that encouraged meaningful connections, collaboration, and camaraderie—reflecting the Chamber's mission to strengthen ties between the Spanish and U.S. business communities.

This successful edition was made possible thanks to the generous support of our sponsors and partners.

We are especially grateful to TABACALERA USA Inc., our Presenting Sponsor; FirstBank Florida, Gold Sponsor; GRUPO EULEN USA, Silver Sponsor; and CIS University | International Studies Foundation, Official Partner. Their continued commitment plays a key role in making this tournament a benchmark event year after year.

The V Spain-US Chamber Golf Tournament 2025 once again demonstrated the power of shared experiences to build lasting relationships, strengthen our business network, and celebrate the strong transatlantic community that defines the Chamber.

II GREEN ENERGY FORUM

The second edition of the Green Energy Forum took place on June 5th, 2025, at the offices of Greenberg Traurig, LLP in Miami, bringing together key leaders and decision-makers from across the U.S. clean energy landscape.

The event, presented by Soltec for the second consecutive year and supported by Transcargo Solutions and Greening as Gold Sponsors, convened more than 100 professionals and representatives from over 20 industry-leading companies. Throughout the day, attendees explored the sector's most pressing challenges—from tariff pressures and regulatory uncertainty to supply chain constraints and the future of climate policy.

Among the key insights shared during the forum were the growing urgency to strengthen and modernize the U.S. grid amid rising demand from data centers and advanced industries; the critical role of long-duration energy storage in securing a reliable and diversified energy mix; the opportunities and complexities of scaling U.S. clean energy manufacturing in a shifting regulatory and tariff environment; and the overarching need for collaboration, innovation, and coordinated action to advance the country's energy transition.

The discussions reinforced a central message: in a moment of profound transformation for U.S. energy policy, creating spaces for knowledge exchange and collective reflection is essential for shaping a cleaner and more reliable future.

MEET & GREET WITH VÍCTOR KÜPPERS (MENTES EXPERTAS)

June 13th, we had the pleasure of welcoming Víctor Küppers and the Mentes Expertas team to our offices for an exclusive gathering with members and close friends of the Spain-US Chamber of Commerce.

This visit took place in the context of Víctor Küppers' upcoming live conference in Miami, scheduled for August 28th at the James L. Knight Center, marking an important milestone in the arrival of Mentes Expertas to the United States. During their visit to the U.S., Víctor Küppers was joined by Marina Zambrana and Pedro Cornejo, founders of Mentes Expertas, who shared the vision, purpose, and impact of this powerful initiative dedicated to transforming lives through knowledge, attitude, and motivation.

The event unfolded in a warm and intimate setting, fostering meaningful conversations and allowing guests to exchange reflections, gain first-hand insight into the Mentes Expertas philosophy, and preview upcoming initiatives and projects.

June, 17th INSTITUTIONAL WELCOME FOR THE CLUB WORLD CUP

The Spain-U.S. Chamber of Commerce, in collaboration with the Consulate General of Spain in Miami and with the participation of the Royal Spanish Football Federation (RFEF), Mahou, and Iberia, organized the Official Welcome for Real Madrid C.F. on June 17th in the United States, on the occasion of their participation in the FIFA Club World Cup 2025.

The event, held at Miami Dade College, featured the participation of Miami Dade Mayor Daniella Levine Cava; Miami Dade College President Madeline Pumariega; the Consul General of Spain, Jaime Lacadena; and the President of the Chamber, Mónica Vázquez. The RFEF was represented by its president, Rafael Louzán, accompanied by Emilio García Silvero from FIFA. Representing Real Madrid, José Ángel Sánchez and Emilio Butragueño both spoke, highlighting the club's strong connection with its U.S. fan base.

This institutional event strengthened Miami's role as a global football platform and demonstrated Spain's commitment to international outreach through sport.

June, 23th EDUCACIÓN Y TALENTO EN UN MUNDO GLOBAL

On June 23rd, a strategic meeting was held at the Wolfson Campus of Miami Dade College, where we had the opportunity to collaborate in an initiative organized by the Community of Madrid, in partnership with Miami Dade College, aimed at strengthening educational, scientific, and business ties between Madrid and Florida.

The event featured a special intervention by H.E. Isabel Díaz Ayuso, President of the Community of Madrid, who highlighted Madrid's strong academic ecosystem—emphasizing that the region is home to Spain's top public universities, according to Forbes—and positioned Madrid as a welcoming second home for students from Latin America and the United States.

This gathering was part of the international campaign “Study in Madrid, Live Madrid,” an initiative designed to promote the global visibility of Madrid's universities and to foster new opportunities for international cooperation by bringing together academic leaders and institutional representatives from both regions.

The program included a panel discussion with prominent figures from the academic and public sectors, focusing on international education, talent development, and cross-border collaboration.

The dialogue underscored the shared commitment to building long-term partnerships that support innovation, mobility, and economic growth through education.

July, 8th EUROPEAN BUSINESS NETWORKING COCKTAIL FRANCE

On July 8th we were proud to take part in the European Business Networking Cocktail hosted at the stunning Casa Neos Rooftop, a gathering that brought together more than 100 professionals for an evening of high-level networking along the Miami River. Organized on this occasion by the French-American Chamber of Commerce Florida (FACC Miami), the event was a full house and a remarkable success, offering a vibrant atmosphere where members of various European chambers connected, exchanged ideas, and explored new opportunities for collaboration.

For the Spain-US Chamber of Commerce, we were pleased to count on Drury Law Firm as our sponsor.

Additional support came from sponsors representing other European chambers, including Kreante (LowCode & AI Agency), Engel & Völkers Miami, Transport Logistic / Project Cargo & Air Cargo Americas, Nobilia North America, and La Beautanique—highlighting once again the strength and diversity of our European business network in South Florida.

September, 10th - 12th AMERICAS FOOD & BEVERAGE SHOW

The Americas Food & Beverage Show 2025 once again positioned itself as one of the most important trade platforms for the food and beverage industry in the Americas, bringing together more than 12,000 registered participants, 900+ exhibitors, and buyers from over 50 countries at a truly global marketplace.

This year marked a historic milestone with Spain serving as the Country of Honor, featuring the largest Spanish Pavilion ever assembled at the show. A record 68 Spanish companies participated—spanning food, wine, and services—demonstrating Spain’s leadership, innovation, and competitiveness in the international food and beverage sector.

Led by the Spain-US Chamber of Commerce, the Spanish Pavilion served as a strategic hub for business development, facilitating commercial meetings, institutional engagement, and direct access to U.S. and international buyers. For Spanish producers seeking to enter or expand within the U.S. market, the show provided an unparalleled opportunity to showcase products, establish partnerships, and generate new business leads.

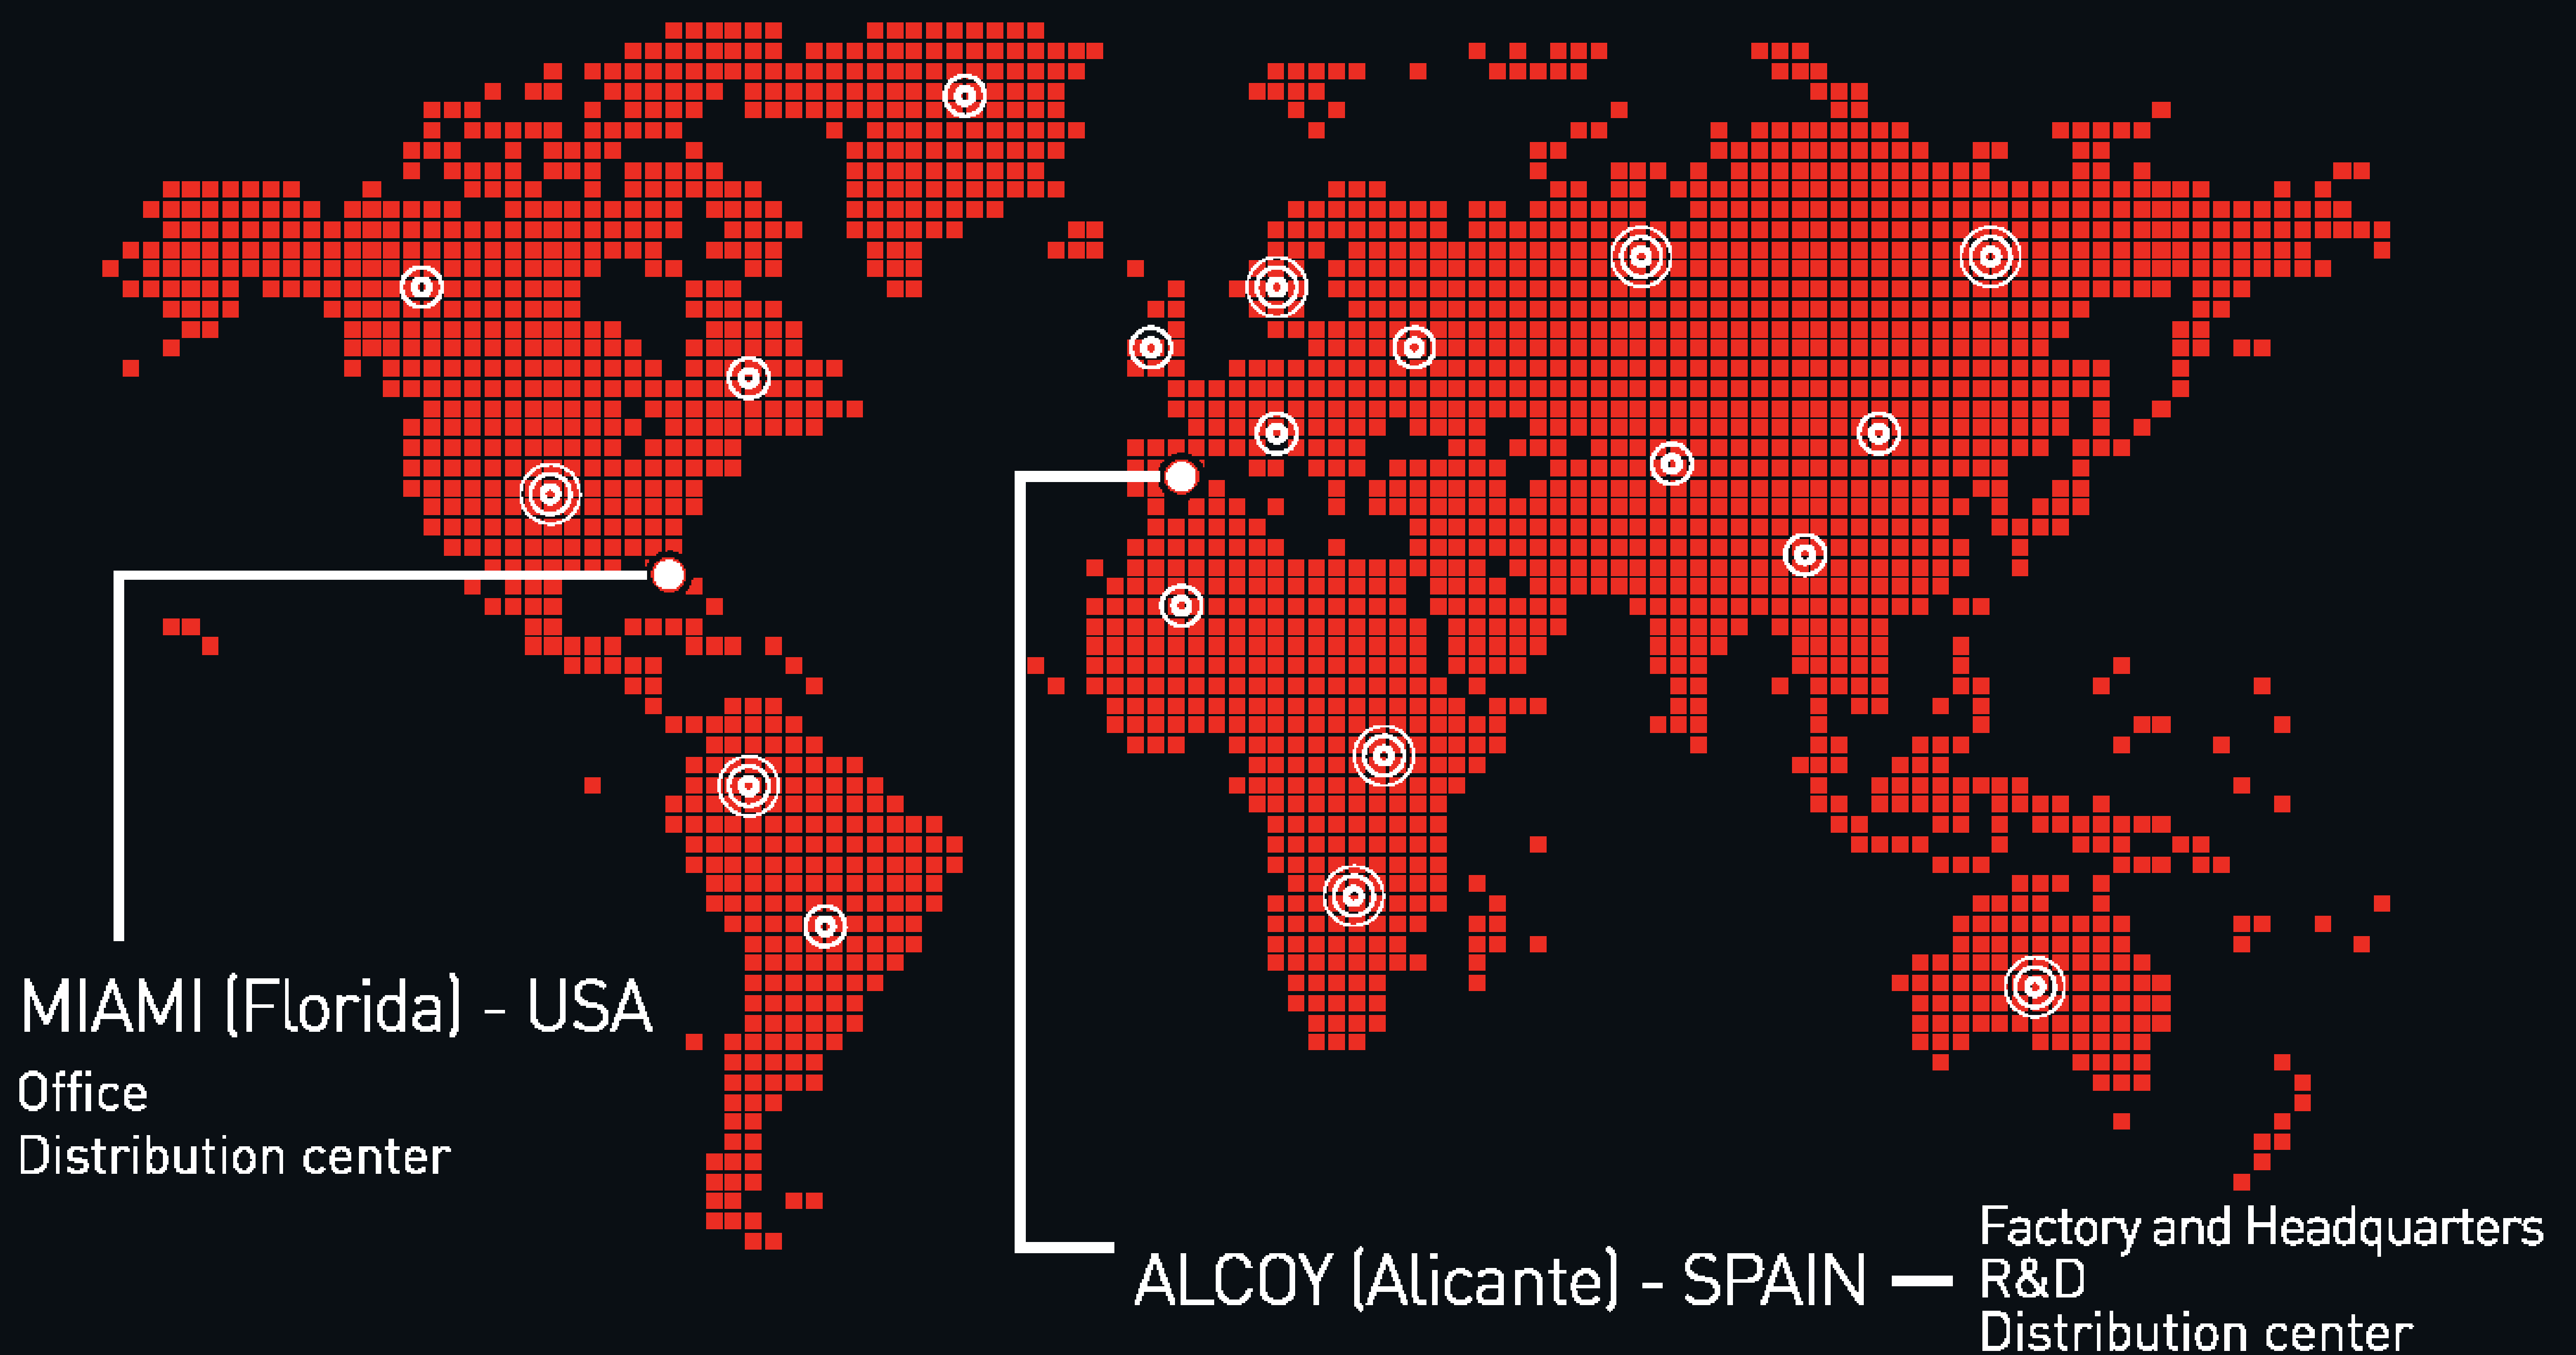

The opening day included an institutional tour of the Spanish Pavilion, joined by H.E. Belén Alfaro, Consul of Spain in Miami, along with Chamber leadership, highlighting the collective strength of the Spanish delegation and the global impact of Brand Spain.

September, 12th JAI ALAI BATTLE COURT FALL SEASON: OPENING NIGHT

On September 12th, we officially kicked off the World Jai-Alai League's Battle Court Winter Season, marking the beginning of an exciting chapter for a sport deeply rooted in Spanish heritage. This year, at the Spain-U.S. Chamber of Commerce, we proudly served as the Official Community Partner of the Cyclones, reinforcing our commitment to bringing jai-alai closer to our community and celebrating a tradition that originated in Spain's Basque Country before becoming an iconic part of Miami's cultural and sporting history.

The season opened with the Cyclones taking the court with a powerhouse lineup featuring Jairo, Iñaki, Stan, Manu, Bueno, and Unda, setting the tone from the very first match with energy, skill, and determination.

Through this partnership, we were able to share unforgettable nights of sport, culture, and community, honoring a discipline with deep Spanish roots that continues to unite generations and strengthen cultural ties in South Florida.

September, 17th II REAL ESTATE FORUM

The Real Estate Forum took place on September 17th, 2025, at the Pérez Art Museum Miami, bringing together key leaders and stakeholders shaping the future of Florida's real estate sector. Presented by ABANCA as Official Sponsor and SDV Partners as Silver Sponsor, the event followed an exclusive speakers' dinner hosted by ABANCA at ZERU in Brickell.

Throughout the day, attendees explored major trends and challenges across the industry, beginning with a market analysis on real estate trends and capital flows. The program continued with four thematic panels: the transformation of office and retail assets, new pressures and opportunities in the residential market, structuring and financing real estate projects, and innovation and investment in the hospitality sector.

The forum concluded with networking sessions that reinforced its core purpose: fostering informed dialogue and strategic connections to support the next chapter of real estate development in Florida.

September, 18th EUROPEAN BUSINESS NETWORKING COCKTAIL SPAIN & UK

On September 18th, the European Business Networking Cocktail brought together more than 250 business leaders, entrepreneurs, and professionals for an evening of high-level networking at the iconic Regatta Grove. The event served as a dynamic platform to strengthen ties among the European and transatlantic business communities in South Florida.

Hosted by the Spain–US Chamber of Commerce in partnership with the British American Business Council Miami (BABC Miami), and in collaboration with the Italy–America Chamber of Commerce Southeast, the German American Business Chamber of South Florida (GABC), and the French–American Chamber of Commerce Florida (FACC Miami), the evening highlighted the power of cross-border collaboration and shared economic interests.

Participants engaged in meaningful conversations, explored new business opportunities, and built valuable connections in a vibrant and welcoming atmosphere. The event once again underscored South Florida's role as a strategic hub for international business and investment.

The Chamber extends its sincere appreciation to the event sponsors—Neo Construction, Engel & Völkers Miami, and nobilia North America, Inc.—whose support was instrumental in making this successful.

CHARLA CON LA COLECTIVIDAD ESPAÑOLA EN MIAMI SOBRE LA PROTECCIÓN SOCIOLABORAL DE LOS ESPAÑOLES EN EL EXTERIOR

On September 30th, the Spain-US Chamber of Commerce hosted the Talk on Social and Labor Protection for Spaniards Abroad in Miami, bringing together members of the Spanish community in South Florida. The event was organized in collaboration with the Embassy of Spain in Washington, D.C., the Labor, Migration and Social Security Office, and the Consulate General of Spain in Miami.

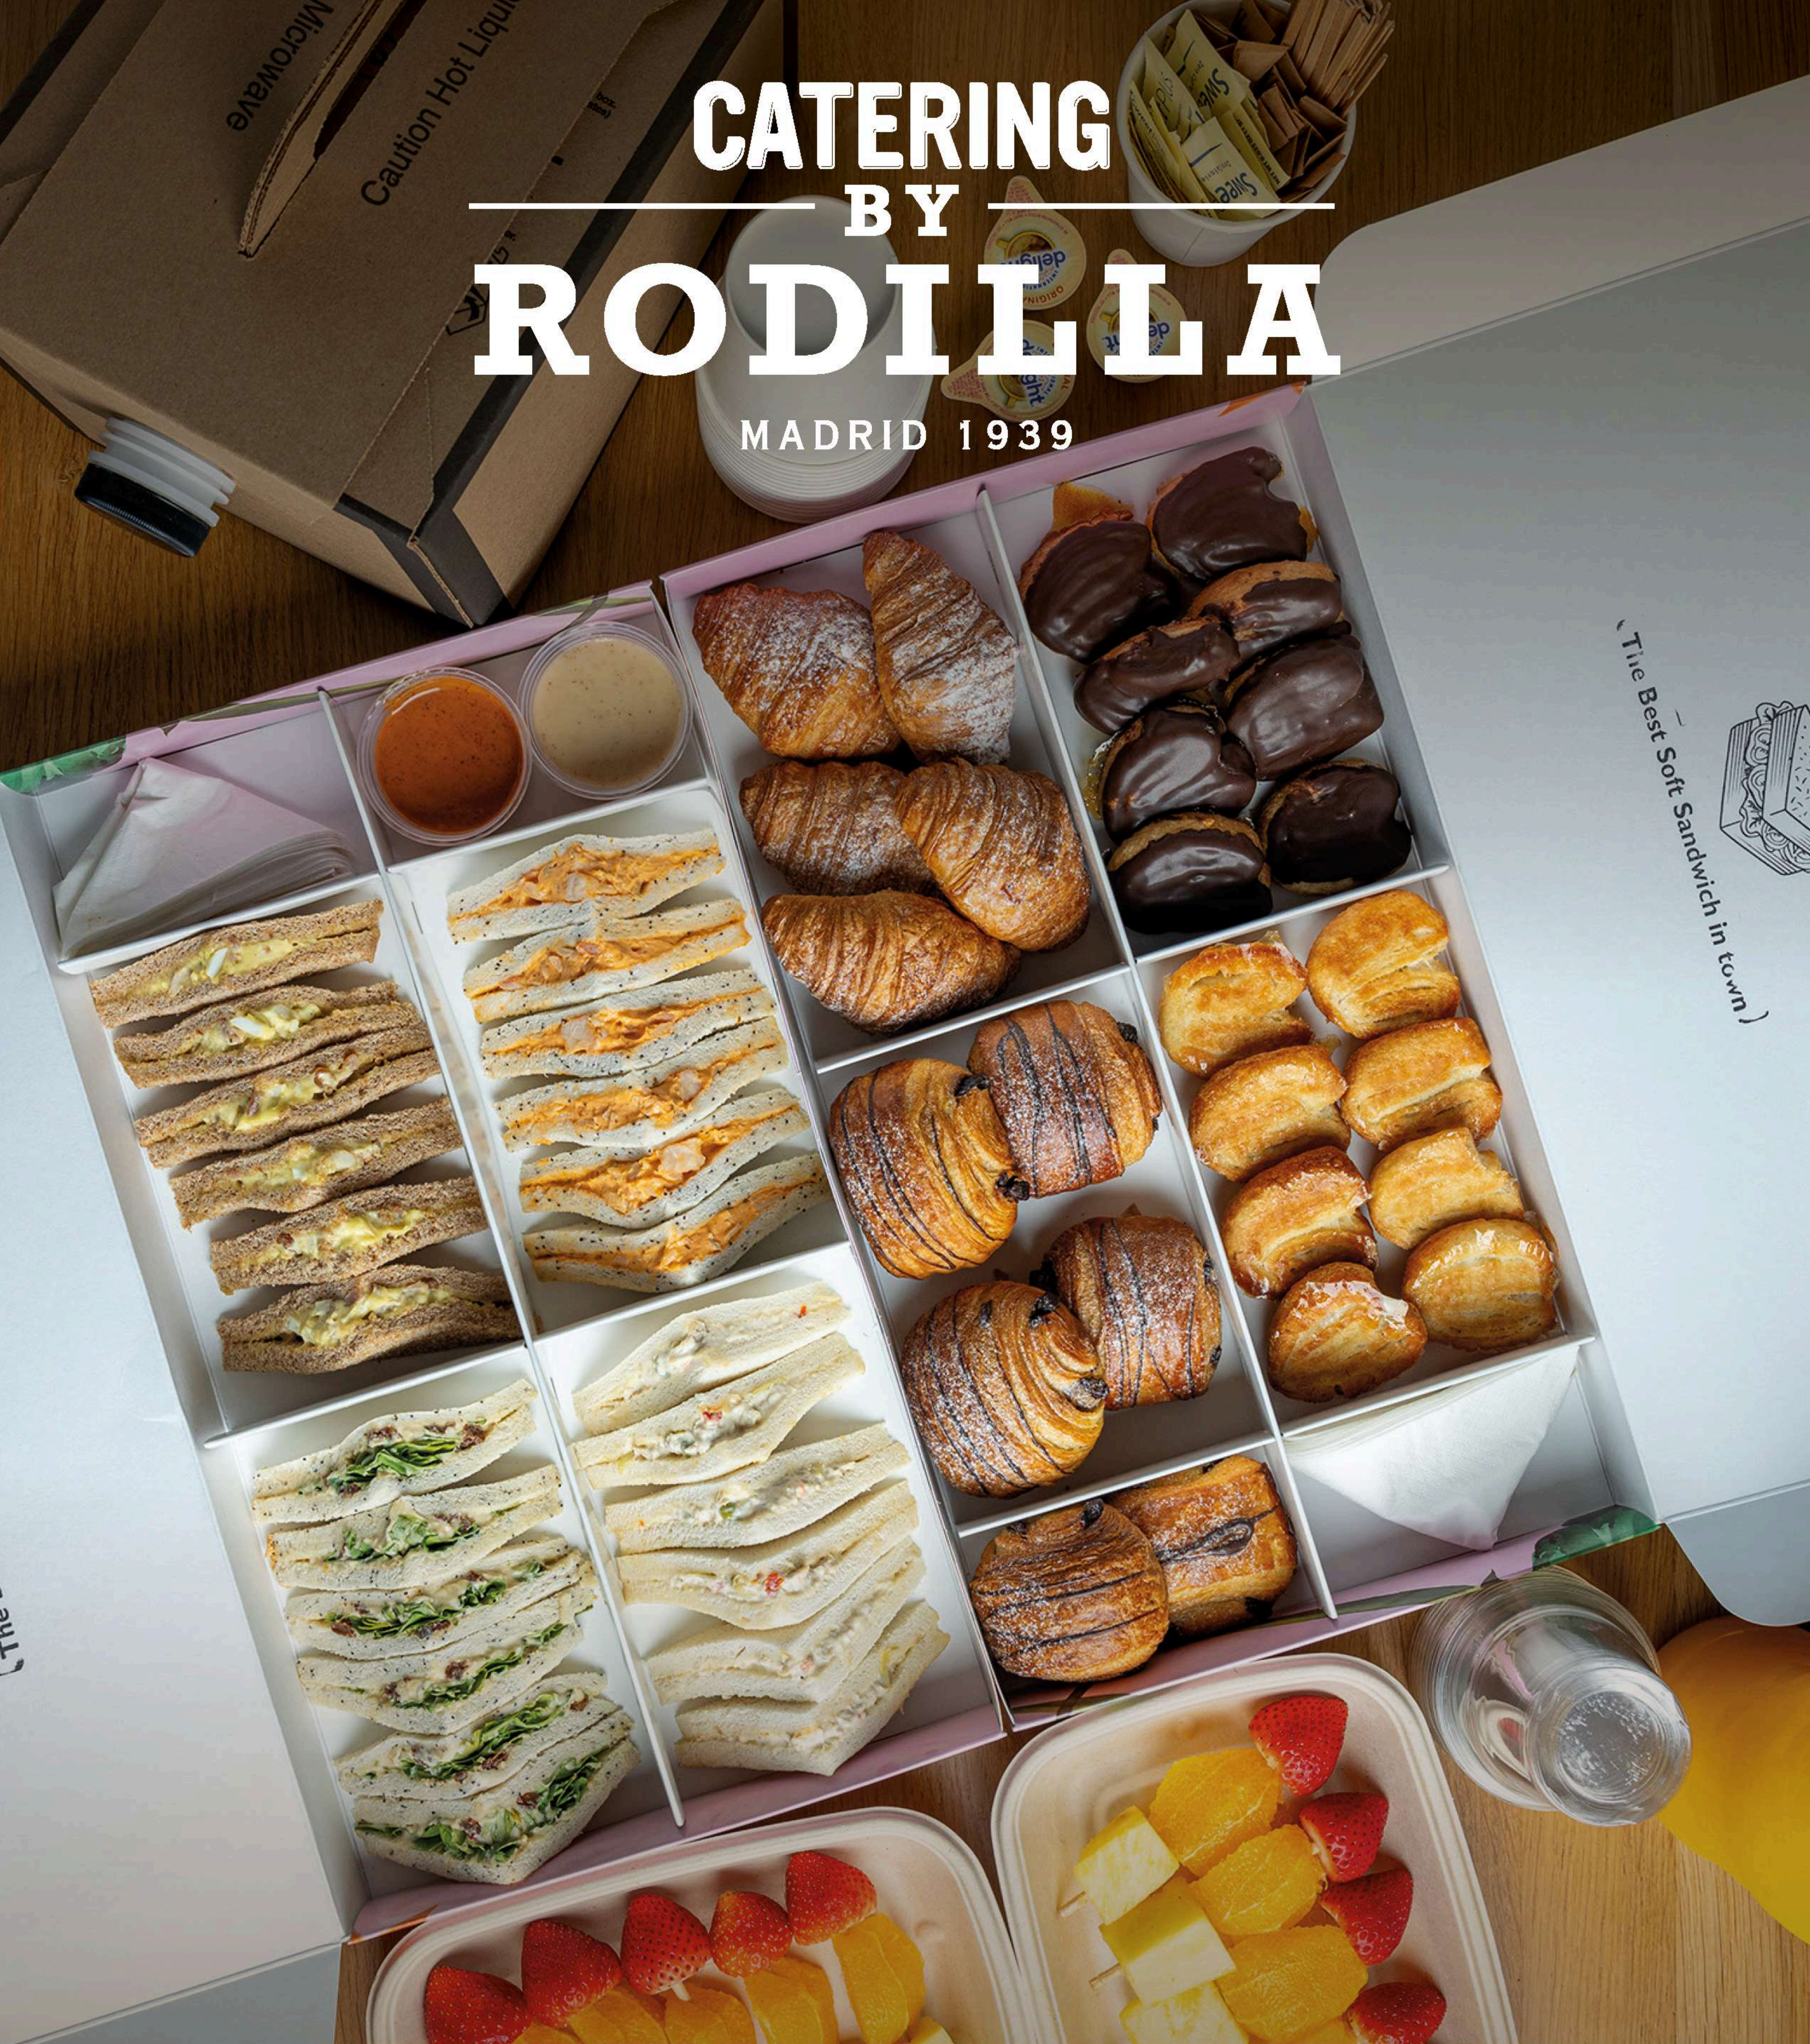

The session featured presentations by José Ignacio Sánchez Ruiz and Marcos Fraile Pastor, who provided clear and practical guidance on key aspects of social and labor protection available to Spaniards living abroad. Topics discussed included healthcare coverage in Spain for temporary stays or permanent return, options and procedures for returning to Spain, and unemployment benefits and Spanish Social Security coverage.

The event offered attendees the opportunity to address specific questions, receive first-hand guidance, and gain a deeper understanding of their rights and available resources as Spanish nationals residing overseas.

OCT, 10th JAI ALAI BATTLE COURT FALL SEASON

On October 10th, we joined the World Jai Alai League for an exciting match between the Cyclones and the Renegades. The evening delivered all the intensity and speed that define Jai Alai, a traditional Basque sport known for being one of the fastest ball games in the world. Played with a curved basket called a cesta, Jai Alai combines athleticism, precision, and strategy—making it a unique cultural and sporting experience.

The match kept the audience engaged from start to finish, with both teams showing impressive skill and agility. In the end, the Cyclones claimed victory with a 4-2 win, securing yet another memorable moment in the season. Our participation as community partners allowed us to continue supporting the Cyclones efforts to elevate and expand the presence of this historic sport in South Florida.

October, 16th SCALE BEYOND BORDERS INVEST IN MADRID

On October 16th, more than 50 U.S. entrepreneurs, startups, and scaleups gathered at Mana Tech Loft in Miami for Scale Beyond Borders, an event organized by Invest in Madrid in collaboration with the Spain-U.S. Chamber of Commerce. The session brought together business leaders and investors to explore the expanding opportunities for U.S. companies in Europe and to discover how Madrid is positioning itself as a natural gateway for those seeking to scale and operate internationally.

Moderated by Juan Carlos Pereira, Executive Director of the Spain-U.S. Chamber of Commerce, the panel featured Charly Esnal (CEO of Mana Tech), Carlos Armengol (Co-CEO U.S. of Job&Talent), Isaac de la Peña (Partner at Buena Vista Ventures), and José María Baños (Angel Investor and Founding Partner & Managing Director of LETSLAW).

Ignacio Cid, Investment Manager at Invest in Madrid, delivered the closing remarks, emphasizing the region's long-term commitment to fostering innovation, attracting foreign investment, and creating bridges between Spain and the Americas.

October, 22th WOMEN ON WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP

The Spain-U.S. Chamber of Commerce in Florida celebrated on October 22nd the second edition of WOMEN ON – Women in Leadership, taking place in Miami, hosted by Holland & Knight LLP, bringing together professionals and leaders for an inspiring conversation on leadership, growth, and authenticity.

The panel explored the importance of stepping forward with confidence, embracing uncertainty, and having the courage to say “yes” to new challenges. Speakers highlighted how professional success today is closely tied to continuous learning, adaptability, and trusting one’s ability to evolve in an ever-changing environment.

The event featured outstanding leaders from diverse industries, including Miriam Soler Ramos (Holland & Knight LLP), Carola Vasquez (YouTube), Donna Abood (Savills), Jennifer Rossano (Citizens), and Olga Ramudo (Gray Dawes Travel), whose insights and experiences resonated strongly with attendees.

The Spain-U.S. Chamber of Commerce extends its sincere thanks to Iberia, official event partner, for its continued support and for enhancing the experience with a special raffle, including a round-trip flight to Spain.

45TH ANNIVERSARY GALA

On November 6th The Spain-U.S. Chamber of Commerce in Florida celebrated its 45th Anniversary Gala at Jungle Island, bringing together over 420 business leaders, prominent figures, and celebrities from Spain, the United States, and Latin America. Under the theme “45 Years Building Bridges”, the evening honored the Chamber’s founders, Raúl Valdés-Fauli and Julián Linares, recognizing their vision and leadership in establishing one of the most influential binational chambers in the U.S.

This year, the Chamber presented its highest distinctions: Henkell Freixenet received the Ponce de León Company of the Year Award for its global leadership in the sparkling wine industry, combining tradition, innovation, and excellence; Iván Tornos, Chairman & CEO of Zimmer Biomet Holdings, Inc., was recognized as Corporate Leader of the Year for his outstanding contributions to medical technology and global healthcare innovation.

Both awards reflect the ongoing impact of Spanish companies and executives in the U.S. market.

November, 6th 45TH ANNIVERSARY GALA

The gala welcomed an impressive array of distinguished guests, including José Díaz-Balart, Julio Iglesias Jr., Rosa Clará, among others, celebrating the achievements and connections fostered by the Chamber over its 45-year history. Each honoree received a Menina sculpture, a symbol of creativity, resilience, and the enduring spirit of Spanish art, with the announcement that the acclaimed Meninas Gallery will arrive in Miami in 2026.

Mónica Vázquez, President of the Spain-U.S. Chamber of Commerce, highlighted the Chamber's record-breaking year with more than 550 members, 39 events, and thousands of companies supported.

She reaffirmed the Chamber's mission to build bridges, empower talent, and project the best of Spain to the world, while expressing gratitude to the Chamber of Commerce of Spain and its President, José Luis Bonet, for their unwavering support.

The 45th Anniversary Gala was a memorable celebration of business, culture, and international collaboration, reinforcing the Chamber's pivotal role as a platform for connection, growth, and the promotion of Spain in the United States.

November, 12th III INFRASTRUCTURE SUMMIT

On November 12th, the Infrastructure Summit 2025 brought together more than 120 industry leaders and professionals in Miami to discuss the future of infrastructure and construction in the United States. Organized by the Spain-U.S. Chamber of Commerce with the support of Sacyr as presenting sponsor, the event served as a key forum for public and private stakeholders to analyze market trends, investment opportunities, and innovative delivery models.

Panels included representatives from state and local authorities, global infrastructure companies, and leading financial institutions, covering public-private partnerships, project planning and execution, smart financing, and innovation in design and technology. A highlight of the summit was the case study of the I-10 Calcasieu River Bridge in Louisiana, a landmark PPP project in the U.S.

The Summit not only provided a platform for sharing best practices and emerging solutions but also fostered valuable networking opportunities, strengthening collaboration across the infrastructure ecosystem. Its success reinforces the event's growing role as a reference point for innovation, investment, and strategic dialogue in the U.S. infrastructure sector.

ONE HEALTH: WHERE CREATIVITY MEETS INNOVATION (IMASCONO)

On November 13th, we hosted a full day of knowledge exchange and hands-on learning at the AI Center at Miami Dade College, where technology and healthcare converged in a meaningful and impactful way.

The ONE HEALTH event went beyond discussion, offering participants a practical experience of how emerging technologies are shaping the future of health. Through sessions on artificial intelligence, extended reality, IoT, simulation, and connected platforms, attendees explored real-world applications transforming medicine, veterinary care, and the pharmaceutical sector.

The program emphasized relevance over trends, focusing on solutions that are already optimizing resources and improving outcomes across disciplines.

A dynamic panel of experts shared actionable insights and practical examples of how technology is being effectively implemented today.

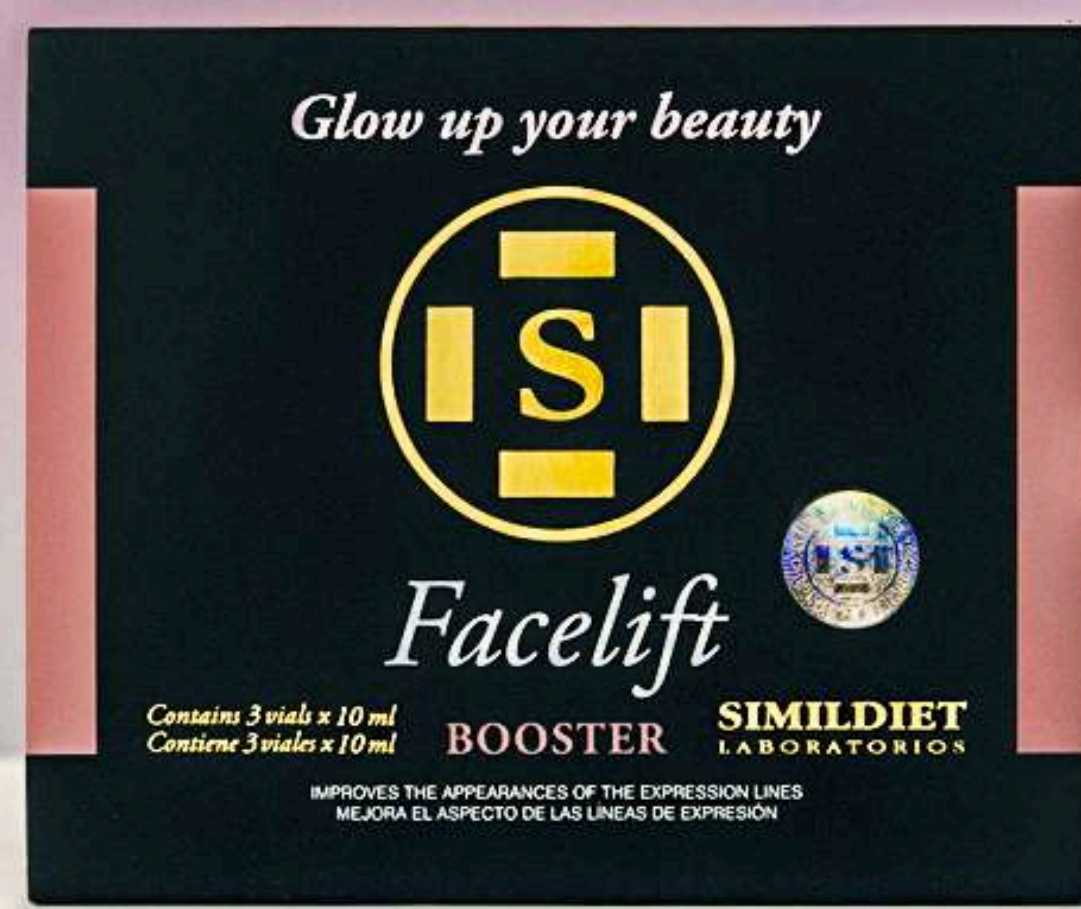

We extend our sincere appreciation to IMASCONO for advancing this vision and to all participants whose engagement made the event both collaborative and impactful.

November, 14th WOMEN ON - BENEFITS OF GENDER DIVERSE LEADERSHIP

On November 14th, we hosted the third and final edition of our Women ON: Empowerment and Confidence – Benefits of Gender-Diverse Leadership series. This session took place at Greenberg Traurig's Miami offices, bringing together professionals committed to advancing conversations on inclusive leadership, skill development, and the strategic value of gender diversity in today's organizations. The program explored how confidence-building, continuous learning, and participatory decision-making contribute to creating stronger and more resilient workplaces.

The discussion was moderated by Carol Barnhart, Attorney at Greenberg Traurig LLP and Co-Chair of the Miami Corporate Practice, who guided an engaging dialogue among a distinguished group of speakers. Lisa Lanham, Corporate Shareholder at Greenberg Traurig, shared insights from her experience in the financial services sector.

María F. Delgado Oliveros, Founder and CEO of Glidiffy and former leader at Uber and Chime, contributed perspectives on innovation, entrepreneurship, and women's leadership in tech-driven environments.

Together, the panelists offered thoughtful reflections on the importance of fostering gender-diverse leadership and creating spaces where women can build confidence, develop new skills, and contribute meaningfully to organizational strategy. Closing the year's Women ON series, this edition reinforced our commitment to promoting inclusive leadership and elevating women's voices across the business community.
